Florida law allows the prospective parents to pay the reasonable living, legal, medical, psychological and psychiatric expenses of the Gestational Surrogate that are directly related to the prenatal, intrapartal and postpartal periods. Please state the approximate total amount you desire to be compensated (not including medical screening and care, psychological screening/counseling, or legal fees). Perhaps reference to your monthly living expenses, calculated over a 10-month period, will assist you in arriving at a reasonable living expense figure.
